

The Cheesebrokers

From their time of their formation at the University of Alabama back in the early 1990's, The Cheesebrokers have focused solely on the music of the 1980's: the popular sing-along sounds of the big hair bands, metal groups and one-hit pop wonders. It's classic music that remains fun and delightfully cheesy! The band is comprised of four players on guitar, keyboards, bass and drums.
