

Just A Few Cats

Just a Few Cats is a Birmingham based band that received national attention when former member Rueben Studdard won as TV's "American Idol." The band specializes in background jazz, funk, R&B, soul and Motown selections and generally performs as a four piece group consisting of guitar, keyboards, bass and drums with all male vocalists. An additional female vocalist and horn player may also be added to the Cats' line-up. With Just a Few Cats, you can count on a fun grooving, hip performance!
